

STUART

Joy Communications to speak at conference

Joy Communications, an industry leader in unified communications, announced the company is speaking at STAR CON, Technology Assurance Group's industry conference of leading technology providers.

TAG is an international association of independently owned unified communications companies collectively representing almost $350 million in products and services.

The event will be Oct. 20 to 23 in San Diego at the U.S. Grant Hotel.

